Introduction

INDIGENA
FINE FOLK ART

Authentic artisanal products from Latin-America

Indigena advocates for qualitative artisanal products with a guarantee to be locally produced and fairly remunerated. We want you to learn about the rich culture of the native people in a way where respect and transparency are central. Every product has been carefully handpicked from the workplace of Indigenous communities.

Indigena Collection

Sisal & Iraca

Ancestral know-how

Made by the Indigenous Nukak, semi-nomadic people living in the Upper Amazon region, the creation-process requires ancestal know-how that has been passed on from generation to generation. The production of these objects require many hours of precision and manual labour in order to create unique and timeless pieces.

Take what you need

The Nukak-people are hunter-gatherers that only take what they need from nature. These semi-nomadic people use these baskets to transport their personal belongings during their travels. Through these beautiful objects, we hope to take you on their journey.

100% natural

For the Indigenous people, nature is a source of priceless treasures. This is where they go to forage chiquechique, iraca, sisal, caña flecha… These materials are used to create baskets, tableware and so much more.

use & maintenance

Sisal & Iraca are natural materials and can be cleaned using water. More so, it's actually beneficial for the maintenance of these objects to be regularly washed with water.

Our engagement

These products are often the fruit of a few women who decided to create a business together. The little free time they have is spent on crafting their art. Thanks to this cooperative of female artisans, the sale of their products improves their lives. Each piece is entirely unique according to the skills of the artisans.

Heritage & quality

The true pleasure of finding our products lays in the unique meetings with the artisans and discovering their stories. For example, the artisans living in the Andes celebrate their heritage by recycling the alpaca bags used to transport the harvest into one-of-a-kind pillow cases.

DELIVERY : Delivery times are given as an indication. The goods travel at the risk of the buyer, whereby the transfer of risk takes place as soon as the goods leave the warehouses of INDIGENA SRL. INDIGENA SRL reserves the right to invoice the goods as delivered, even if it concerns parts. For wholesale customers, the transport costs are mentioned on the order form. Pallets that are not returned will be invoiced at €15 excl. Upon receipt of your deliveries, please sign the delivery note with your precise comments (the statement "subject to inspection" may be used, but with an immediate e-mail with photos and references). PRODUCTS : All products sold by INDIGENA SRL are handmade from natural raw materials. Slight variations in colour may occur and/or small variations in size are possible. These are part of the authenticity of the product and confirm the individuality and beauty of the product.

Indigena products should be used with care. (For example for the Chamba: do not cut with a sharp knife, do not use in the dishwasher, cooking at very high temperatures can cause the red colour used for smoking to appear, etc.). Usage advice can be found on the website and on the recipe cards that come with the products. Indigena cannot be held responsible in any way for incorrect use of the products. However, in the event of a defect, INDIGENA SRL's liability is limited to the replacement of the defective part, without INDIGENA SRL being held liable for any reimbursement, indemnification or compensation of any kind and for any reason whatsoever. In case of a defect, the Buyer should report the defect by e-mail to sophie@indigena.be with a photo and reference. INDIGENA SRL will ensure the proper follow-up of the replacement, but not the transport. Indigena undertakes to deliver the defective product with the next order.

In the absence of payment of an invoice on the due date, all amounts due become immediately payable, regardless of the previously granted payment facilities. In the event of non-payment of a partial delivery on the due date, INDIGENA SRL reserves the right to cancel the balance of the order.

DELAY : In the event of non-payment of an invoice on its due date and without prior notice of default the debtor acknowledges that he shall owe conventional damages of 2% and interest on arrears of 10% per annum. The courts of Brussels have exclusive jurisdiction. The purchaser acknowledges that the goods remain the property of INDIGENA SRL until full payment of the invoice and its attachments in the event of non-payment at the due date.

DISPUTES : In the event of a dispute, with the exception of the recovery of unpaid invoices, the parties undertake to seek prior mediation by appointing an approved mediator and to participate in two sessions of at least two hours in order to try to reach an amicable settlement.

“Through these products you will discover the artisans we work with. Every moment they are not occupied with their daily tasks, the women of the village spend on the creation of these objects.

In the shadow of a tree or late in the evening while the children are sleeping, you will find these women working on their creations. The sale of their products allows them to support their family.”
